

REMARKS

The inventorship in the instant application was improperly set forth in the executed Declaration that was filed with the application. Accordingly, Applicant is simultaneously filing a continuation application naming the correct inventors. Benefit of this application's filing date will still be available under 35 U.S.C. §120 because there is at least one inventor overlap, namely Randall W. Nelson, between the two applications.

Dated: October 4, 2004

Respectfully submitted,
